LAST WEEK:

Guest:

Bob & Karen Stauffer, Doug Seefeldt & David Green all from the SW Club

Program:

Serene Malhara (shown here exchanging Rotary Banners with our President Jack Klein.), Exchange Student from India sponsored by SW Club, spoke to us last Friday. She is 17 and from Jalgaon, India. A small town outside of Bombai.

She shared with us that she likes to dance, folk as well as modern. She aspires to become a doctor in the future. What she liked doing in Oshkosh was driving a snow mobile and bowling. She asked us to keep her in mind if we go bowling and invite here along.

She is very personable and a great good will ambassador for Rotary as well as India. She said "friends are like sugar in a chocolate cake." Meaning they are very important, but one of many ingredients to life. Her extended family, which lives near each other in India, is important to her.

Conquer the Concrete: Andy DeWitt and Ryan Ames displayed true Rotary spirit and volunteered. Date not set, but this spring. The last weekend in April was suggested, however Stan mentioned there may be a conflict with another event on that date.
