LAST WEEK:

Guests: Barb Herzog, Sue Panek and Karen Stauffer from the SW Club. Paul Narveson & Josh Anderson from the Downtown Club. As a guest of Jack's, Mike Shields visited the club.

Program:

Brittini Raygo, from Omro High School, was one of students we sent to this year's World Affairs Seminar. She came to our meeting to give her views of her World Affairs Seminar experience.

She thought it to be much better than anticipated. The speakers gave her different perspective. However, the interaction with students from around the world gave her a personal perspective on America and the world.

Brittini is looking at going to Dickinson College and major in International Relations.

NEWS:

The Dragons Boats! Our team did not lose, meaning we did not come in last. But we were rather far from first. The weather was fantastic and all the paddlers had a great time. We are looking forward to next year. Thanks to all those that participated.

PALS update. Julie met with our PALS school, Webster Stanley, and got ideas on how we can support them. We can supply Fruit and Healthy Snacks that they disperse to the children. This is needed as many don't get enough to eat and not of healthy things. Julie will come up with a donation plan for the Club Possible Fund Raiser Opportunity, October 6th. We can man a food stand for Race Office Supply's 75th Anniversary.
